After his father died, Dave Philp was moved to give back. The Wayne resident came up with the idea of organizing fund-raisers around a decade of music. YouChoose allows guests to request songs from a theme decade and pay for the band to play them. Guests also have the option of playing or singing along with the band. The organization's next event has a Jingle Rock '80s theme and will benefit Push to Walk, a nonprofit that aims to inspire people with spinal cord injuries to realize their full individual potential.
